

The SAMsn Initiative:

Advancing Sustainable Management Systems
in Agriculture and Horticulture

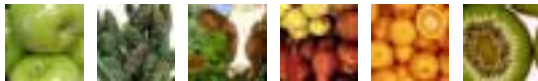

An analysis of international and New Zealand programmes and their contribution to sustainability

The SAMsn Initiative:

Advancing Sustainable Management Systems in Agriculture and Horticulture

An analysis of international and New Zealand programmes and their contribution to sustainability

Prepared for:

SAMsn Project Team

Prepared by:

Lynette Wharfe and Jon Manhire

Agribusiness Consultants

The AgriBusiness Group

PO Box 10 824, Wellington

Email: lynette@agribusinessgroup.com

jon@agribusinessgroup.com

Dated: March 2004

Acknowledgements

The Sustainable Management Systems Network (SAMsn) acknowledge the support received from the following:

Project Grantor: Sustainable Farming Fund
Project Grantee: Federated Farmers of New Zealand (Inc.)

Financial Contributions: EQUAL
Fonterra
Meat NZ
Zespri
DEEResearch

Project Management Team:	Graham McBride	Project Co-ordinator
	Karl Mischewski	Project Manager
	Sally Millar	Federated Farmers
	Irene Parminter	MAF Policy
	Dr Jim Barnett/ Charlotte Rutherford	Fonterra
	Jim Cotman	Landowner/ EQUAL
	Kelvin Whall	Meat and Wool Innovation
	MJ Loza	DEEResearch
	John Paterson	Deer Industry New Zealand
	Peter Ensor	VegFed and NZ Fruitgrowers Federation
	Philip Manson	New Zealand Winegrowers
	Dr Stuart Kay	Zespri
	Doug Lineham	Meat industry representative
	Clare Rosser	Federated Farmers

Research Team: Lynette Wharfe The AgriBusiness Group
Jon Manhire The AgriBusiness Group

Research Contributors: Stuart Ford The AgriBusiness Group
Rachel Gibson Lincoln University

The Research Team wish to acknowledge and thank industry participants for their time and provision of information that has contributed to this report.

Disclaimer: Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this report. The AgriBusiness Group and the SAMsn Network accept no responsibility for any omissions or errors in the information.

Table of Contents

The SAMsn Initiative: Part One - Overview

1.0	Sustainable Agriculture Management Systems Network	1/1
2.0	The SAMsn Initiative: This Report	1/2
3.0	A Background to SMS Programmes	1/2
4.0	Descriptors	1/3
5.0	The SAMsn Initiative: Summary of Findings	1/5
6.0	Emerging Themes	1/9
7.0	The SAMsn Framework	1/11

The SAMsn Initiative: Part Two – Literature Review

1.0	Introduction	2/1
2.0	Sustainability and the International Context	2/2
3.0	Sustainability and the New Zealand Context	2/3
4.0	Generic Systems for Sustainable Management	2/4
5.0	The Role for SMS in Agriculture	2/7
6.0	Tools to Assist Agriculture	2/9
7.0	Measuring Success	2/11
8.0	Conclusion	2/12

The SAMsn Initiative: Part Three – A Survey of International and New Zealand EMS/QA Programmes

1.0	Introduction	3/1
2.0	International Environmental and Quality Assurance Programmes	3/2
3.0	New Zealand Programmes - Sustainable Management Systems to Quality Assurance	3/12

The SAMsn Initiative: Part Four – Case Studies: A Review of Selected New Zealand Environmental Management and Quality Assurance Programmes

1.0	Introduction	4/1
2.0	Deer Industry Quality Assurance Programmes	4/2
3.0	New Zealand Fresh Produce Approved Supplier Programme	4/8
4.0	Zespri KiwiGreen and EUREP-GAP Programmes	4/12
5.0	Sustainable Winegrowing New Zealand	4/16
6.0	Market Focused	4/19
7.0	Analysis of Findings	4/23
8.0	Conclusion	4/28

APPENDICES

1	Glossary
2	Survey Questions